1. Characteristics of the Department

This Department aims to develop highly practical researchers who can understand the inextricable relationship among food, energy and the environment; have a passion for tackling the ultimate challenges in human survival; can build and lead teams of experts from a broad range of disciplines and possess the communication skills needed to play an active role in the international community. The major characteristics of the Department include:

- 5-year Consistent Educational Program

The traditional master's program (2 year) and doctoral program (3 year) are integrated into one 5-year program. The first and second years are called "Pre D" and "D0" respectively, and the third, fourth and fifth years "D1," "D2" and "D3." This system enables strategic, seamless and practical education.

- Cross-Disciplinary Research Guidance Through Laboratory Rotation

The student is supervised not only by a faculty supervisor of this Department (education supervisor—to be detailed later), but also by three faculty supervisors in total from this Department or other Departments (research supervisors—to be detailed later) during the Pre D and D0 years to develop a broad perspective and deepen the technical understanding of multidisciplinary fields.

- Quarterly Semester System

The quarterly semester system allows students to select their desired international activities flexibly such as overseas study.
